

First Congregational Parish, Unitarian – Petersham, Massachusetts
Services Held in 2020

In December 2020 we held two services.

December 13th – In the Sanctuary at 10:30 AM, Rev. Inanna Arthen – “The Four Freedoms: Freedom from Fear” with music by Marc Erwin

December 24th at 4:30 – “CHRISTMAS EVE ON THE LAWN.” Cathy Tyng played Christmas carols and other favorites on our historic organ. Rev. Arthen gave a short message of the season.

Some services were held during the summer and early fall of 2020 in the courtyard garden:

- September 27 – Harvest Home/Autumn Equinox
- September 13 – Ingathering, Water Communion
- a worship service on August 24 led by Reverend Inanna Arthen with music by Marc Erwin and Rini Kilcoyne.
- a worship service on July 19
- a Flower Communion Service on Sunday June 21

Regular services at our Church were temporarily suspended due to the pandemic in mid-March 2020.

- March 15, 2020 – Iva Kazda, Northern Exposure
- March 8, 2020 – Reverend Inanna Arthen
- March 1, 2020 – Rini Kilcoyne, Women’s Suffrage
- February 23, 2020 – Reverend Inanna Arthen
- February 16, 2020 – Carol Mays and Gary Blanchard, Uplifting Poems and Songs
- February 9, 2020 – Supressed: The Fight to Vote, Documentary by famous film maker Robert Greenwald. Discussion facilitated by Mimi Jones. In the Church Dining Room.
- February 2, 2020 – Reverend Inanna Arthen – In the Belly
- January 26, 2020 – Reverend Inanna Arthen – Questions of Race
- January 19, 2020 – Dana Tomlin, Forks with Annual Meeting at Noon
- January 12, 2020 – Reverend Inanna Arthen, After O-O-P-S with Budget Presentation at 11:30 AM
- January 5, 2020 – Join our fun everybody-can-help group un-decorating of the Sanctuary with Marc Erwin playing his selection of holiday tunes on his choice of instrument(s). We say so long to our light-filled, graceful sanctuary until the spring sun warms our North Quabbin homes again.